EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Roland E. Long, Jr. (#41,949) on August 31, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

Claims 8-10 and 21 have been canceled.

1. (Currently amended) A child car seat comprising:
a base provided with a lower base portion to be mounted on a seat vehicle, and with an upper base portion mounted, via a connection, to be the lower base portion so as to freely turn that the upper base portion rotates with respect to the lower base portion, the connection connecting the upper and lower base portions so that the upper base portion is repositionable with respect to the lower base portion from a first position where the upper base is facing a first direction to a second position where the upper base is facing a 180 degrees opposite second direction 180 degrees opposite the first direction such a manner that repositioning the upper base portion from the first position to the second position reverses an orientation of the upper base portion with respect to the lower base portion and, when the base is mounted in on the seat of the vehicle, a longitudinal direction of the vehicle; and a seat main body supported by the base, the upper base portion of the base having an upper surface, and the seat main body being mounted on the upper surface of the upper base portion via a reclining mechanism, wherein, the seat main body has a shell which is connected to the upper base portion via the reclining mechanism, the base is provided with a bridge which ~~is arranged so~~

~~to cover~~ covers at least a portion of the shell and ~~to be~~ is astride the shell in a lateral direction while allowing a reclining motion of the shell respect to the upper base portion and which the bridge has both ends fixed to the upper base portion, and which the bridge includes a belt fixing apparatus for fixing a seat belt of the vehicle to the base is mounted to the bridge.

4. (Currently amended) A child car seat comprising:
a base; and
a seat main body supported by the base,

the base provided with a lower base portion to be mounted on a seat of a vehicle, the lower base portion connected to an upper base portion so as to freely turn that the upper base portion rotates with respect to the lower base portion, the upper base portion repositionable with respect to the lower base portion from a first position where the upper base is facing a first direction to a second position where the upper base is facing an opposite second direction in such a manner repositioning the upper base portion from the first position to the second position reverses an orientation of the upper base portion with respect to the lower base portion and, when the base is mounted in on the seat of the vehicle, a longitudinal direction of the vehicle;

the base having an upper surface to which the seat main body is mounted, and wherein the upper base portion is provided with a belt mounting portion for fixing the upper base portion to the seat of the vehicle by the seat belt of the vehicle.

16. (Currently amended) A child car seat comprising:

seat supporting portion to be clamped on a seat of a vehicle by a seat belt of the vehicle; and a belt fixing apparatus to be mounted to the seat supporting portion, allowing the seat belt inserted to an inner portion thereof to move in one direction and inhibiting seat belt from moving to an opposite direction to the one direction, wherein the belt fixing apparatus is rotatably mounted to the seat supporting portion from a first position where the belt fixing apparatus is facing a first direction to a second position where the belt fixing apparatus is facing an opposite second direction.

19. (Previously presented) The child car seat according to claim 16, wherein the child car seat is provided a base provided as the seat supporting portion, and a seat main body provided as to be detachable with respect to the base, and the belt fixing apparatus is mounted to the portion of the base covered by the seat main body.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art does not teach the seat main body being mounted on the upper surface of the upper base portion via a reclining mechanism, as defined in claim 1. Prior art does not teach the upper base portion repositionable with respect to the lower base portion from a first position where the upper base is facing a first direction to a second position where the upper base is facing an opposite second direction in such a manner repositioning the upper base portion from the first position to the second position reverses an orientation of the upper base portion with respect to the lower base portion and, when the base is mounted in on the seat of the vehicle, a longitudinal direction of the vehicle, and wherein the upper base portion is provided with a belt mounting portion for fixing the upper base portion to the seat of the vehicle by the seat belt of the vehicle, as defined in claim 4.

Prior art does not teach wherein the belt fixing apparatus is rotatably mounted to the seat supporting portion from a first position where the belt fixing apparatus is facing a first direction to a second position where the belt fixing apparatus is facing an opposite second direction, as defined in claim 16.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
